2008 Estate Grenache Noir - $18 New Release – February 2010

Our Estate Grenache Noir has wild raspberry on the nose, herbal undertones with floral essence in the pallet with hints of strawberry/raspberry on the finish. Pairs well with the humble hamburger, corned beef, salmon, or BBQ chicken.

Bronze Medal – Fingerlakes International Wine Competition

2008 Ramona Valley Merlot - $20 New Release – April 2010

This lovely wine from Ramona Valley grapes is a mouth full of dark fruit, plum and blackberry, with a hint of white pepper and soft tannins in the finish. It has been aged in 50% French Oak and 50% American oak.

2007 Estate Cabernet Franc - $20

Our estate Cabernet Franc has vanilla with cherries in the nose, and medium tannins which go all the way to finish in the pallet. It was aged in French oak for 1 year and should age for several years to come. It pairs well with prime rib, or buffalo.

2007 Estate Reserve Merlot - $25

Only 2 cases left

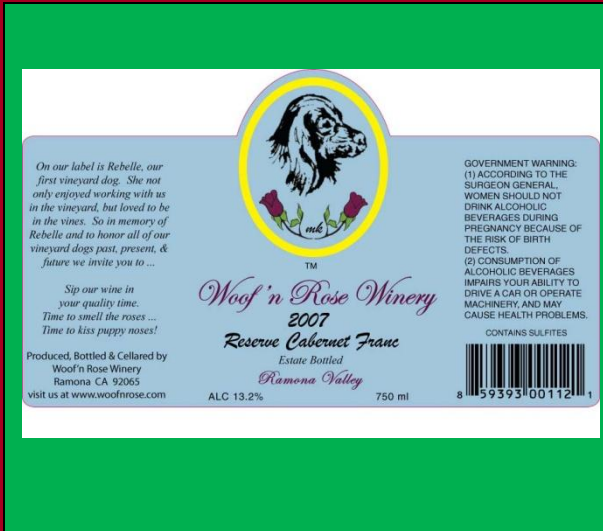

Our 2007 estate Merlot is made from our oldest vineyard. It has been dry farmed leaving us with a low yield of intense fruit and an incredible dark, rich color. This lovely wine will be enjoyed with prime rib, wild game, full bodied cheese or even all by itself.
